Saturday, May 6, 2017

12:00pm-5:00pm

4H Horsemanship and Trail Clinic:

Session I Trail-Beginner from 12-1pm

Session II Trail-Intermediate/Advanced from 1:15-2:15

Session III Horsemanship-Beginner from 2:30-3:30

Session IV Horsemanship- Intermediate/Advanced 3:45-4:45

Wrap up and questions 4:45-5:00pm

The Trail clinic will introduce basics of the trail class. Participants will learn how to achieve success with their horse, including topics like fearful horses, groundwork, and transitions. Obstacles, side passing, backing easy, and stopping easy will also be explained in this clinic. Students will see live demos of different trail elements.

Beginners- obstacles, side passing, backing easy and stopping easy

Advanced- backing a U, tarps, bridge, side passing and miscellaneous turns

The Horsemanship clinic will focus on- attacking the pattern. Participants will learn fundamental maneuvers that will allow the rider to excel in the show arena. Some of the topics to be covered are straight lines, lead changes, extending the trot, hand gallop, half turns, quarter turns, spins, turn on the haunches, riding an arc, upward and downward transitions and more.

This is a great way to prepare for your Summer Show series or even the 4H State Horse Show. Learn the skills now, to gain your confidence at your next show.

Clinic is presented by Mrs. Karen Craighead- Karen is a lifelong professional in the horse industry, from managing breeding farms to show farms. She has shown, trained and managed show horses in several disciplines and breeds, and from open show to world show levels. Karen has spent the past 27 years coaching and teaching equestrian science, riding and judging at the university level. She has coached riders and exhibitors from all levels, to become successful in the show pen in AQHA, APHA and PtHA breeds. Karen currently holds AQHA, PtHA and IBHA judges cards, so she is able to give more insight to what the judge wants to see. Don't miss this great opportunity!
