

THE 16TH ANNUAL MID-MISSOURI HORSE, MULE, & OX FARMING & HISTORICAL CRAFTS DAYS

Saturday & Sunday, Oct. 6 & 7, 2012

Saturday 10 to 5 Sunday 10 to 3
Gerald, Missouri

16 YEARS OF
CELEBRATING
OUR HERITAGE!

Admission: Ages 5 to adult--$6.00
Under 5--free
Bringing a team? Call for info!

WELCOME TO ALL COMERS

Old Skills like Sorghum Pressing & Syrup Cooking, Corn Grinding, Handtool Woodworking, Foot-Powered Lathe Turning, Ropemaking, Honey & Beekeeping, Dry-Laid Stone, Antique Clothing, Handmade Wooden Utensils, Cider Pressing, Soapmaking, Breadmaking, & MORE! (Please Note: Exhibitors may change)

Field Work & Log Loading (Weather Permitting) by Skilled Teams and Teamsters!

"Best of Missouri Hands" Photographer Kim Carr and Juried Artists Veronica Brown and Gina Brune Capturing Scenes of Rural Life!

Author & Teamster Walter Schlemper Signing His Autobiographical Books!

The Rural Missouri Spinners Showing the Fine Art of Handspinning!

KIDS--Fun with Children's Primitive Games & Toys!	Hear Pablo Tell the Tales of Early America!	Bring Your Indian Artifacts for Identification!
---	---	---

Try Your Hand at Ox Droving with Carl's Ox Team!

Discover Native Plants with Bill Davit!

Bryan's Pit-Cooked Real Pulled Pork & Jerky!
The Turner Gang's Genuine Chuckwagon!
Thom Thom's Kettle Corn!

Live Music with the "Bluegrass Buddies"!

NO ALCOHOL---This is a family event! NO PETS, even on a leash!
NO MOTORS--this includes ATV's. Power & Manual Wheelchairs ARE OK.

Directions--From St. Louis take I-44 West to Hwy 50, exit right, go about 25 miles to Gerald. From Jeff City, take Hwy 50 East to Gerald. From Rolla, take I-44 East to Hwy 19 North to Owensville, then Hwy 28 East to Hwy 50 East to Gerald. Once in Gerald, turn onto Highway "Y" and follow signs!

Always remembering those who have gone before...We Love and Miss You.

Are you a heritage crafter, musician, or teamster who wants to participate? Or just need more info? Call Gail at 573-764-2629, or e-mail BEFORE the event to tenacity@fidnet.com

NO REPLIES WILL BE MADE DURING EVENT, SO ASK QUESTIONS EARLY!!

Sponsored by Missouri Draft Horse & Mule Association, Inc.!

See more Horse Show Information at www.mohorseshows.com