

QPEE Horse Trials

Horse Trials are considered a triathlon for horse and rider. Three phases are presented by the horse and rider team over two days: Dressage, cross-country jumping and stadium jumping. The horse and rider team with the least amount of penalties wins. Horse Trials are run under the rules and governed by the United States Eventing Association and the United States Equestrian Federation.

CLOSE WINDOW

See more Horse Show Information at www.mohorseshows.com